Our next session is planned for Wednesday, November 7th and the topics will be "Optimal Organizational Design for Procurement (Including a Center of Excellence)" and "Global Sourcing in the New Global Political Realities".

About PERT

The Procurement Executive Round Table (PERT) – a collaboration between The Mpower Group and Corporate United met on Tuesday, April 24, 2018 for a full - day summit focused on "Playing the Role of an Internal Consultant" and "Wave of the Future – Contingent Labor". PERT is a relaunch of the highly successful Next Practices Xchange – "NPX". It was attended by a "Who's Who" of the Midwest's top Strategic Sourcing, Procurement and Supply Chain Executives. Over 20 senior executives met who represent over 760,000 employees and $172 billion in revenue.

WHAT MEMBERS ARE SAYING

"As the complexity and velocity of business transactions increases, corporations are placing greater emphasis on supply chain and procurement optimization. The PERT forum is a great way for executives to share ideas for confronting this changing landscape. The intimate setting and member-driven agenda is much more useful than any annual conference."
Carlton B. Adams – Vice President, Global Category Management, MasterCard

Benefits

PERT is a collaborative, "members-only" group comprised of senior executives from Fortune 1,000 organizations. The group is a peer to- peer organization that meets quarterly to share ideas in a forum setting. Each member brings expertise and varied talents to the group which allows all members to benefit from participation.

Schedule

Meetings are held four times a year. Agendas are developed around a single theme and chosen by the members.

No Sales Pitches

There are no sales pitches. Presenters and presentations are solely for the betterment of members.

Learn From The Best

All members bring expertise and varied talents to the group and as such all participants benefit from involvement with

Constructed By You, For You

It is a member driven organization; Feedback is solicited from the members at each meeting and they make the appropriate changes. The Mpower Group (TMG) facilitates each meeting and contributes their intellectual capital as well

Information

A members-only benchmarking diagnostic is conducted for each meeting's particular theme. Diagnostic results are discussed at the meeting and the results, individual and aggregated are sent after the meeting. All meeting information, be it agendas, presentations, or diagnostic results, are published-to and downloadable-from a secured website.

Networking Opportunities

You will be able to network, Xchange Next Practices, and discuss issues with other members from organizations. The academic community will also be included in the future to contribute to the group, adapt their curriculum and provide interns and new hires.
